Question Six: Read the passage then answer the questions: (10 marks)

The Israeli government has published tenders to build 430 new settler homes in the occupied West Bank, according to an NGO that monitors settlement activity.

Palestine Liberation Organisation (PLO) official Wassel Abu Yusef told the AFP news agency that "what the Israelis announced is part of a wider war... against the Palestinian people. This is a war crime which should push the settlements issue to the International Criminal Court".

The Palestinians want both the occupied West Bank and East Jerusalem, captured by Israel in the 1967 Middle East war, to be part of a future state.

1- Answer the following questions:

- What has the Israeli government published?
.....
- How many homes do the government intend to build?
.....
- What did Wassel Abu Yusef say?
.....
- What do the Palestinian want?
.....
- What do the abbreviation (NGO),(PLO) and (AFP) refer to?
.....

2- Answer with (True or False) and correct the false:

- Israel tends to build a new settlement. ().....
- Israel wants to build homes for Palestinians.().....
- The building news is according to PLO. ().....
- The building should push the Palestinian issue to the International Criminal Court.
().....
