

Course No: BAS 3319
Course Title: Methods of teaching Eng.

Date: 18/05/2015
No. of Questions: (6)
Time: 2 hours
Using Calculator (No)

University of Palestine

Final Exam
2014/2015
Total Grade: 60

InstructorName::A/karim Hamdouna

Student No.: _____

Student Name: _____

CollegeName: Education _____

Dep. / Specialist: _____

Using Dictionary (No)

Question One: Write (T) if the statement is true and (F) if the statement is false.

(25 marks)

1. People need English in many aspects of life such as business, education and politics. ( )
2. A teacher who has difficulty in speaking English will not be able to teach communicatively. ( )
3. The aural- oral method is still in use in our schools today. ( )
4. Language changes to match the changing social needs of its users. This appears clearly in vocabulary change. ( )
5. Language is a complex system however it can't be learnt through a systematic nature and can be easily acquired.
6. Motivation to learn the English language is very high in our schools especially in the early stages of learning. ( )
7. The teacher ought to make learning more teacher-centered and less pupil-centered through pair and group work, role play and problem solving activities. ( )
8. The teacher of English language should choose very easy and simple activities to let the whole class participate effectively in communication. ( )
9. Long dialogues, at the beginning of an English lesson, can be used as a warming up activity. ( )
10. Language learning refers to the process of knowing the language from infancy when the baby or the child acquires knowledge and skills from the mother and home environment before formal schooling. ( )
11. Fluency means the ability to use language easily and correctly at a normal speed. ( )

12. The learner can learn the language by the aural-oral method through habits formation, and students' responses must be practiced until they become automatic and natural. ( )
13. Students in the aural – oral method repeats exactly what the teacher says without giving them the chance for creative thinking.
14. The use of the mother tongue (Arabic) in the English lesson is sometimes necessary for the children's learning. ( )
15. A competent teacher can select the suitable method that works best in the teaching context to achieve a high level of outcome. ( )
16. The reading method places a great emphasis on reading and writing whereas other skills are neglected. ( )
17. An advantage of the grammar translation method is that the pupils' role is largely active. ( )
18. Oral repeating of words or patterns help pupils produce correct writing. ( )
19. Young children learn best in one way, just through pictures. ( )
20. Languages are nearly the same in their sounds and structures. ( )
21. There are many factors that affect methods of teaching English such as: the teacher, the pupil, motivation, objectives of teaching, classroom situation ...etc. ( )
22. Young children enjoy using their hands and bodies in order to learn. ( )
23. Organizing class into pairs, groups, or teams has a good effect on the teaching and learning process. ( )
24. It is necessary that the foreign language teacher should be familiar with methods of teaching to best choose what suits his students. ( )
25. In an English class, the teacher can begin his lesson by introducing a song, a puzzle, a short dialogue, social simple questions,....etc as a warming up activity. ( )

Question Two: What should the teacher do to motivate students for learning a foreign language? (5 marks)

1. ....
2. ....
3. ....
4. ....
5. ....
6. ....
7. ....

Question Three: Why are classroom activities important in learning a foreign language? Give two examples of activities on each language skill. (10 marks)

1. ....
2. ....
3. ....
4. ....
5. ....
6. ....

Activities on listening skill:

- a) .....
- b) .....

Activities on speaking skill:

- a) .....
- b) .....

Activities on reading skill:

- a) .....
- b) .....

Activities on writing skill:

- a) .....
- b) .....

Question Four: There are many methods used in teaching English in our schools. Mention one of them showing its advantages and disadvantages?

(10 marks)

A. Advantages

- 1. ....
- 2. ....
- 3. ....
- 4. ....
- 5. ....

B. Disadvantages

- 1. ....
- 2. ....
- 3. ....
- 4. ....
- 5. ....

Question Five: Compare between the traditional methods and the recent methods of teaching English in different aspects. (e.g. the classroom, the materials, the attitudes, the pupils, the teacher/ Learner relationship, the methodology).

(10 marks)

1. the classroom

from

to

- 1. .... 1. ....
- 2. .... 2. ....

2. the materials

- 1. .... 1. ....
- 2. .... 2. ....

3. the attitudes

- 1. .... 1.....
- 2. .... 2.....

4. the pupils

- 1. .... 1.....
- 2. .... 2.....

5. the methodology

- 1. .... 1. ....
- 2. .... 2. ....

End of Questions